Theological Foundations

BT105: Back to Basics

Dr. Judson Cornwall

A primer for understanding the Bible doctrines that shape Christian living. The basics of the Scriptures, salvation, Christian culture, the Holy Spirit, Christian ceremony, faith, worship, healing, our enemy, righteousness, peace, joy, prayer, giving, ministry, Heaven and Hell.

BT111: The Kingdom of God

Dr. Dwayne Lusk

A study of the Kingdom of God from a practical viewpoint. Emphasis is placed upon the Christian's opportunities and responsibilities to help advance God's Kingdom in and through his or her life.

BT210: A Study of Boundary Laws of the Bible*

Dr. Patti Amsden

A study of boundaries as found in the Scripture. This course will establish who must observe boundaries, the consequence of violating them, and how to legally transfer boundaries. Boundaries will be analyzed in context of the Ten Commandments.

BT217: Holy Spirit I

Dr. Fuchsia Pickett

A study of the Third Person of the Trinity. Topics include the seven personalities, the seven moods, the seven offices and the seven powers of the Holy Spirit.

BT225: Prayer: Its Power and Purpose*

Dr. J. Gordon Henry

A foundational study of prayer. The course will focus on a scriptural and systematic study of spiritual warfare. Students will come to see that Satan has already been defeated and has no place to stand.

BT340: The Prophetic Church*

Dr. Ian Bond

A study of prophets and prophecy in the New Testament and today. A renewed understanding of the gift of prophecy is presented. How churches today may experience one of the Holy Spirit's most edifying gifts while maintaining the supremacy of Scripture.

BT345: Our Glorious Inheritance I

Rev. Mike Shreve

This is an exhaustive study of over 1000 names and titles God has given His people. Seeing this revelation of our God-given names is one of the most comprehensive ways of viewing the full spectrum of our inheritance as sons and daughters of the Most High.

BT430: The Theology of Love

Dr. David Alsobrook

The purpose of this course is to teach believers the importance of loving each other and mankind in general. The student will study love from a theological basis, discovering what love is and how to demonstrate it.

BT440: God's Eternal PlanDr. Fuchsia Pickett

The eternal plan of God for mankind is revealed in the Scriptures. It includes a study of the relationship of time and eternity, the nature of the Godhead, man's creation and fall, the redemptive work of the Lamb, and the Servant ministry of the Holy Spirit.

BT510: Laying the FoundationDr. James Beall

This course examines the doctrine of salvation in terms of the "foundation stones" as outlined in Hebrews 6:1-3. We study these foundation stones in great detail in light of personal salvation.

BT515: Spiritual GiftsDr. Ronald E. Cottle

This is a study of all the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the Scripture. Special emphasis is placed upon the nine charismatic gifts presented in 1 Corinthians 12-14.

BT516: The Theology of the BloodDr. David Alsobrook

God views all blood as sacred, but man's blood is most sacred because man was made in His image. Jesus' blood, because of who He is, holds the highest place in the heart of God. This course shows all that the blood of Jesus has accomplished.

BT527: Priesthood of the BelieverDr. Sam Sasser

This course emphasizes our Christian privilege of being kings and priests unto God. Biblical and historical issues of priestly ministry to the Lord are discussed.

BT544: The Ministry of AngelsRev. Katrina Wilson

The doctrine of angels is Bible-based and will correct common misconceptions. Counters the New Age philosophy and traditions concerning angels. Sound biblical teaching that will help the student discover the purpose and importance of angels from a biblical perspective.

BT545: A Theology of WorshipDr. Fuchsia Pickett

This course demonstrates the pathway to a deeper, fuller, more satisfying relationship with God. It teaches you to embrace the heavenly Father in worship and experience the fullness of all He has for you. You will learn how pure spiritual worship positions you to receive God Himself and His blessings for you.

BT546: A Theology of Power (Live Only)Dr. Mike Murray

Power begins with God. This is evidenced by our world being designed by a powerful Creator through whom all things are sustained and continue to operate within the boundaries of His purposes. This course seeks to understand God's power, how to make it real inside the heart of a Christian, and the secret to living in God's Kingdom power.

BT550: Restoration TheologyDr. Kevin J. Conner

This course considers restoration from a truly biblical base. This course is a study that shows how the restoration of fallen mankind, natural and national Israel, and the Church can be affected only on the grounds of redemption that is found in Christ Jesus.

BT555: A Theology of JoyDr. Judson Cornwall

This course will explore the Bible theology of joy in three specific areas: the source of joy, the characteristics of joy, and the expression of joy. If joy is biblical, we should embrace it fully as a divine gift.

BT571: A New Testament Study of GraceDr. Larry W. Linkous

The study centers on reformation (Hebrews 9:10) and challenges the student to discard cumbersome religious irrelevances that would entangle the believer's life in old covenant law and external fleshly regulations.

BT610: Anonymous Women of Faith: A Theology of FaithDr. Alvis Harthern

A study of the lives of people who demonstrated supernatural faith. Learn what faith is, how to get faith, and how to live a faith-based life. The author uses descriptors to classify the types of faith exhibited by each of the women studied.

BT623: How to Pray the Father's HeartRev. Terry Mahan

A practical examination of prayer in regard to biblical principles. Emphasis is placed on knowing and praying the Father's Heart revealed in Jesus' life and prayers.

BT642: The Work of the Holy SpiritRev. Richard Ronsisvalle

The work of the Holy Spirit in the believer's personal life and how the Holy Spirit leads the child of God are laid out in simple steps. The Holy Spirit's work in the Church through the ministry gifts, the spiritual gifts and the anointing are also shown.

It teaches the discipline of effective prayer in covenant marriage. It builds communication and relational skills that strengthen covenant marriage.

CC555: Godly Foundations for ParentingDr. Larry Keefauver

Biblical truths and principles that lay Godly foundations for parenting. These principles are accompanied by practical examples so that the students can teach and apply them within a Christian family and home.

CC640: New Beginnings in Marriage*^{CEU} (Live Only)Dr. Monica Hill

Will you marry me? Do we understand what we have asked and what we responded "yes" to when we start making wedding plans? Truly understanding what the commitment of marriage is, and what the covenant of marriage is designed to do.

CC660: You Can Have a Happy Family*^{CEU}Dr. Morris Sheats

Biblical principles to guide a Christian family. Topics include: the role of the husband, the role of the wife, parenting skills and family finances. A solid, biblical model of effective family living is presented.

CC662: Family TherapyRev. Richard Ronsisvalle

Birthing God's vision for you and your family. What it means to produce a family that functions according to the will of God. The scriptural chain of command in leadership, discipline, and love. Proper relationships between husband and wife and parents with children. How to abandon the status quo and embrace radical change to realize God's new vision for your family.

CC665: Biblical Sexuality in the 21st Century*^{CEU}Rev. Jayson L. Graves

A biblically 'sex-positive' look at God's model of sexuality, its design, meaning, purpose and challenges therein. The course prepares believers to become better-equipped servants to both believers who are in restoration processes ("recovery") and to those not yet part of the body who experience life outside of His Design for human sexuality with love in place of judgementalism, hope instead of condemnation and grace as opposed to apathy or passivity.

Historical Theology Division (HT)

Church History

HT445: History of Christianity in America I*

Dr. Stephen Mansfield

Traces the origin and growth of Christianity in America beginning in fifteenth century Europe and concluding with the Revolutionary War. More than dates and dead people, history is the result of God's rule over the affairs of men and nations.

HT510: The History of the Early Church*

Dr. Stanley Fleming

A history of the early Church from its origins to the Council of Chalcedon in A.D. 451. Along with general overview, special attention will be paid to notable people, movements, and traditions that have created a rich heritage for the modern day Church.

HT525: Stones of Remembrance

Dr. Fuchsia Pickett

This course is autobiographical. The text traces the powerful visitations of the Holy Spirit in the life of Fuchsia Pickett, the simplicity of her childlike obedience to her "Teacher," and her heart's desire to know God. Embodies many of the revelatory truths that Dr. Pickett taught, relating the way she received them in sacred times of personal encounters with God.

PT631: Worship and Mission (Live Only)

Dr. Paul Melidona

This course is designed to assist students in understanding the heart of God as we seek to worship Him with mission in mind. God’s heart is for ALL people to come to know Him and worship Him. His love was demonstrated to the nations through Christ’s atoning sacrifice. We are called to make disciples of all nations and to allow people to hear of the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. One of the best methods to declare His glory is through various expressions of worship, declaring the love of God to all humanity. The foundations of worship: covenant, the nations and worship, the New Testament and worship will be covered in this course. In addition, various methods will be studied regarding ascertaining the demographics of students' communities so they can reach out and engage the various ethnicities in their communities so they too can become worshipers of God, using their own cultural methods of worship to give offerings of praise unto the Lord. We will finally discuss the eternal place worship has in our hearts as we anticipate our final place of worship in heaven
